ELEVEN DAYS OF RACING ON OLD PIMLICO TRACK

rimen Are to Have Chance to Compete for Total of $130,000 in Purses.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 29.—The Maryland Jockey Club will inaugurate at Pimlico next Saturday in surroundings as picturesque as any race course in the United States can boast of, what promises to be the most successful of all the fall meetings of ting old-line States. With no competition anywhere, the Maryland Jockey Club will have the support of the best horses of the strongest stables, and the attendance will be as good as the horses. Pimlico has in the course of the last few years, thanks to the consistent policy of the manazement in promoting distance racing by offering purses of high values for contests over respectable routes, become the Mecca of the racing fraternity in November.

The impending meeting, which will be of eleven days' duration, beginning November 1 and ending November 13, will be marked by the distribution among the horsemen of a matter of $130,000, or more than $10,000 a day. This money will all be given by the club. No entrance fees are charged in any of the Pimlico stakes or purses, only starting fees in the stakes. BALTIMORE, Oct. 29 .- The Maryland

BUT BIRDS ARE SCARCE

Jeffries Is Indifferent.

When Jeffries entered the Coney Island Afhletic Club to fight Bob Flizsummons for the champions tip in 1899 one would have thought he was out for a drive instead of facing the nest man in the world up to that time. He came through the box office of the club wearing a flating red sweater and a golf cap. He was as indifferent to everything and everybody as if he were present to witness the fight. When asked that night as to what he thought of his clances he carelessly replied:

"I think I'll win. If I don't I won't make a holler; that's all."

Nothing seemed to disturb him, and the vest crowd marveled at his self-control and lack of emotion.

Asked one time how he could control his feelings so well before a fight, Jeffries said:

"I have been that way since a kid. I was never afraid of anybody or anything. I don't know what it is to be nervous or rattled, even if a fellow placed the muzzle of a gun before my nose, and a few have been pointed there."
